

Standard Terms and Conditions

Payment Terms

The following terms and conditions apply to payments for all courses offered by Aeolus Aviation unless qualified in specific course documentation or the training contract.

1. Any required pre-payment must be paid in full before the course can be attended.
2. Payment for theoretical studies (ground school) must be made in full prior to the beginning of the training.
3. For flight training courses (or courses containing flight training) of 10 hours or less, full payment of the flight training is required before flights will be permitted.
4. For flight training courses (or courses that include flight training) of greater than 10 hours, and while there are 10 hours or more of flight training remaining, the student is required at all times to maintain a minimum of 10 hours flight training pre-paid. For example, a student enrolled for 100 Hours of hour building who has pre-paid for 15 flight hours can fly a maximum of 5 hours before he or she is required to pre-pay further hours.
5. Payment for flight examiner fees are the responsibility of the student.
6. No skill test will be permitted until all payment for training up to and including the skill have been made in full.
7. No license, certificate or qualification be issued before payment for the entire course to which the license, certificate or qualification relates has been made in full.
8. Students are responsible for any and all costs associated with landing at an airport or airfield other than those designated by Aeolus Aviation for training purposes, except in the case of a forced or precautionary landing for reasons directly the responsibility of Aeolus Aviation.
9. The student will be responsible for any and all costs associated with making payment for their training such as bank transfer or credit card fees.
10. Aeolus Aviation reserves the right to cancel, either temporarily or permanently and without penalty to Aeolus Aviation, the training of any student who fails to make payments as required or in good time.
11. Any pre-payment made for any aspect of training, flight or theoretical, will be non-refundable in the event of cancellation due to breach of contract. Furthermore Aeolus Aviation will charge the student for 25% of the remainder of the contracted value yet unpaid.
